"The cannabis industry for the most part is still in its infancy. Multiple states already allow medical marijuana and several now allow recreational products as well. One of the options we've been presented has staying power for the long term and the risk vs reward if off the charts. We are excited about what we've seen to date and feel strongly that a separate division focused on the cannabis industry will create a long term benefit for the company and our shareholders."

Bayport International Holdings, Inc. Announces financing for further acquisitions in the legalized cannabis industry

Mar 15, 2017

Bayport International Holdings, Inc announced today that the company is in negotiations for financing a new development project and some possible acquisitions in the legalized cannabis industry. Since our growth in the legalized cannabis digital market in November 2016 of last year, the volume of interest has exploded and the user base of www.weedwiser.com is growing.

This will help shareholders investment in Bayport's growth and bring Bayport to the next phase of business 2017.

We are also interviewing key personnel to put in place for our next level of growth of our platform www.weedwiser.com.

With the introduction of www.weedwiser.com and the upcoming completion of the new app interface, we are moving forward aggressively in the next 90 days. We plan to keep this momentum going as we enter this new exciting space, with the upcoming new website features on www.weedwiser.com and our app development along with putting a fantastic team of great minds together on board to help in the further development of the company in the Legal Cannabis Industry.
