Well Positioned For Strategic Growth in 2017

Friendable Inc. is a mobile-social technology company focused on connecting and engaging users through innovative applications that expand beyond today's limitations. In 2013, the Company released its flagship product Friendable, a mobile social application where users can create one-on-one or group-style meetups for food, drinks, live music, or any occasion. In 2017, Friendable Inc. will release Broadcaster, a live streaming video application where fans can watch exclusive back-stage and uncensored video content from behind the scenes to broadcast messages from their favorite performing artist, celebrity, athlete and much more by subscribing to exclusive content channels. Through Friendable's new and upcoming release of the "Fan Pass" mobile app, Friendable Inc. aims to become a premier provider of social networking applications and live video steaming plafoms that connect consumers, artists and celebrities with their fans.
